

Rules 3 ESD Workers Must Be Discharged

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Civil Service Commission ruled today three employees of the Arkansas Employment Security office should be discharged because of political activity in 1960 in violation of the Hatch Act.

The act limits political activities by some federal officials and state officials and employees engaged in activities financed by federal funds.

The three involved are William Watkins, Charles F. Wood and Luke Arnett.

The commission cleared Robert O. Rainwater and John Caras, also employees of the office, of similar charges.

The commission thus upheld findings a hearing examiner made last October.

The five employees had been accused of soliciting and receiving funds in April 1960 to aid the re-election campaign of Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

Faubus was not available for comment.

As to Watkins, Wood and Arnett, the commission said the charges had been sustained and that their dismissals "are warranted."

Under federal law, a commission spokesman said, if the state fails to discharge the three within 30 days, the commission then would direct the federal agency supplying the federal funds to withhold from the state twice the annual salary of each of the three men.

College Fund Case Argued Orally

By JOHN R. STARR
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court heard oral arguments today, then took under submission a suit denying to test legality of an act which would permit use of $8.5 million from state reserve funds for college construction.

High court approval of the law, Act 65 of 1961, would clear the way for a start on the college phase of a $23 million state construction program drawn up at two special legislative sessions last year.

A Supreme Court ruling could come as early as next Monday but the decision is not expected for two or three weeks.

Act 65 sets up machinery for replacing the construction money which would be taken from the reserve fund. It permits borrowing up to $8.5 million from the state's daily treasury balances with the loan to be repaid over a 15-year period. The money borrowed would be transferred to the reserve fund as it needed.

Herschel Friday, attorney for the state, explained that smooth operation of government finances requires a reserve fund because state income is not constant from month to month while expenses are.

In those months when expenditures exceed income, Friday said, the treasurer dips into the reserve fund so that all obligations can be met. The money taken is replaced in months when income exceeds expenses.

Act 65 provides for issuing certificates of indebtedness against daily balances with repayment at 3 per cent interest required within 15 years. It pledges income from investment of the total daily balance—which averages $40 million—to pay interest and principal on these certificates.

While Act 65 in essence simply changes bookkeeping procedures under which money is transferred from fund to fund in the treasurer's office, it has not been used pending court approval of the law. College construction, therefore, will be held up until and unless the court rules favorably. The act was upheld in a lower court.

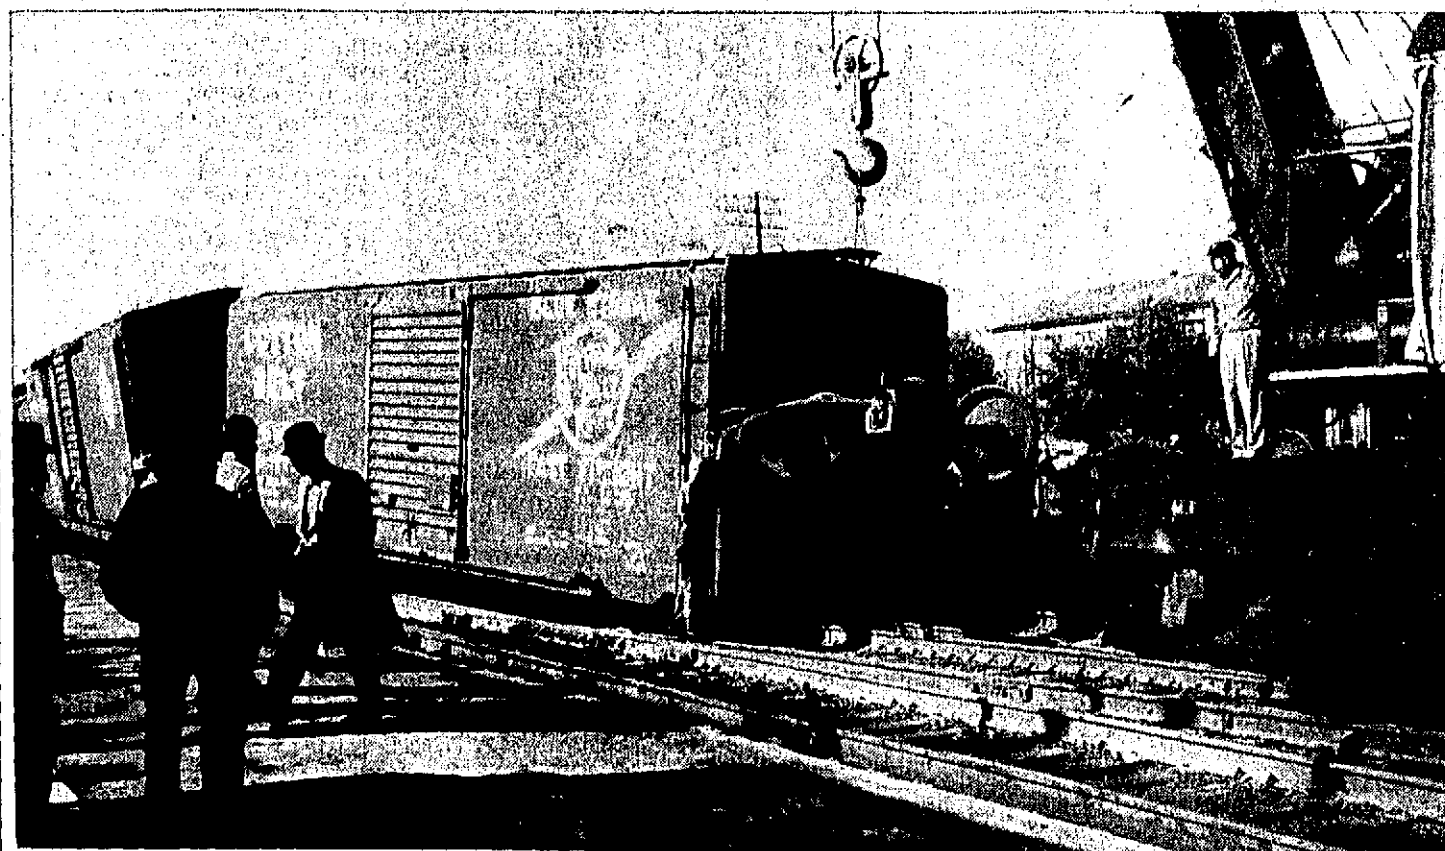

Maxine Miles of West Memphis brought the friendly test suit as a taxpayer. State Rep. C. B. Nance Jr. of West Memphis, who supported the act in the legislature, acted as her attorney. Friday, a private attorney, was assisting the attorney general's office in defending the act.

Accidental Death Toll Goes to 22

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Four California men died in a plane crash near Hot Springs Sunday, raising Arkansas' violent death toll for the week ended at midnight Sunday to 22.

Fourteen of the deaths were connected with the cold, icy weather in the state last week. Five persons were asphyxiated, five died in fires, one died of exposure, two drowned and one died in a traffic accident caused by a slick road. One man died in a truck-train accident.

The four plane crash victims were Henry Clay Risner, Louis Risner, Russ Weininger, and Charles Cornell, all of the Los Angeles area. Their plane went down 35 miles north of Hot Springs while they were en route from Pine Bluff to Dallas. They had been to New York.

Stanley Roberts, 32, of Magnolia, was killed by a shotgun blast Sunday and Ernest C. Sweet of near Magnolia was held on an open charge. Sheriff Jack Stevens said. The shooting occurred at Sweet's home after an argument.

Mrs. Martha Askey, 78, Negro of Little Rock, died Saturday in a fire that destroyed her home.

An elderly couple, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Edward Van Pelt, and their nephew, Otha Pims, 35, were found asphyxiated in the couple's home at Beebe Saturday. Coroner Henry Plant said the deaths were caused by carbon monoxide poisoning from a defective gas heater. Pims was from Wynne.

Charles Wayne Warren, 19, of Lambrook, Ark., froze to death Friday after he jumped from a raft that had gone out of control. Warren and a companion, Theo Parker, 21, were floating the raft down Big Creek toward White River near Helena when it went out of control and Warren jumped. He landed in shallow water but made shore.

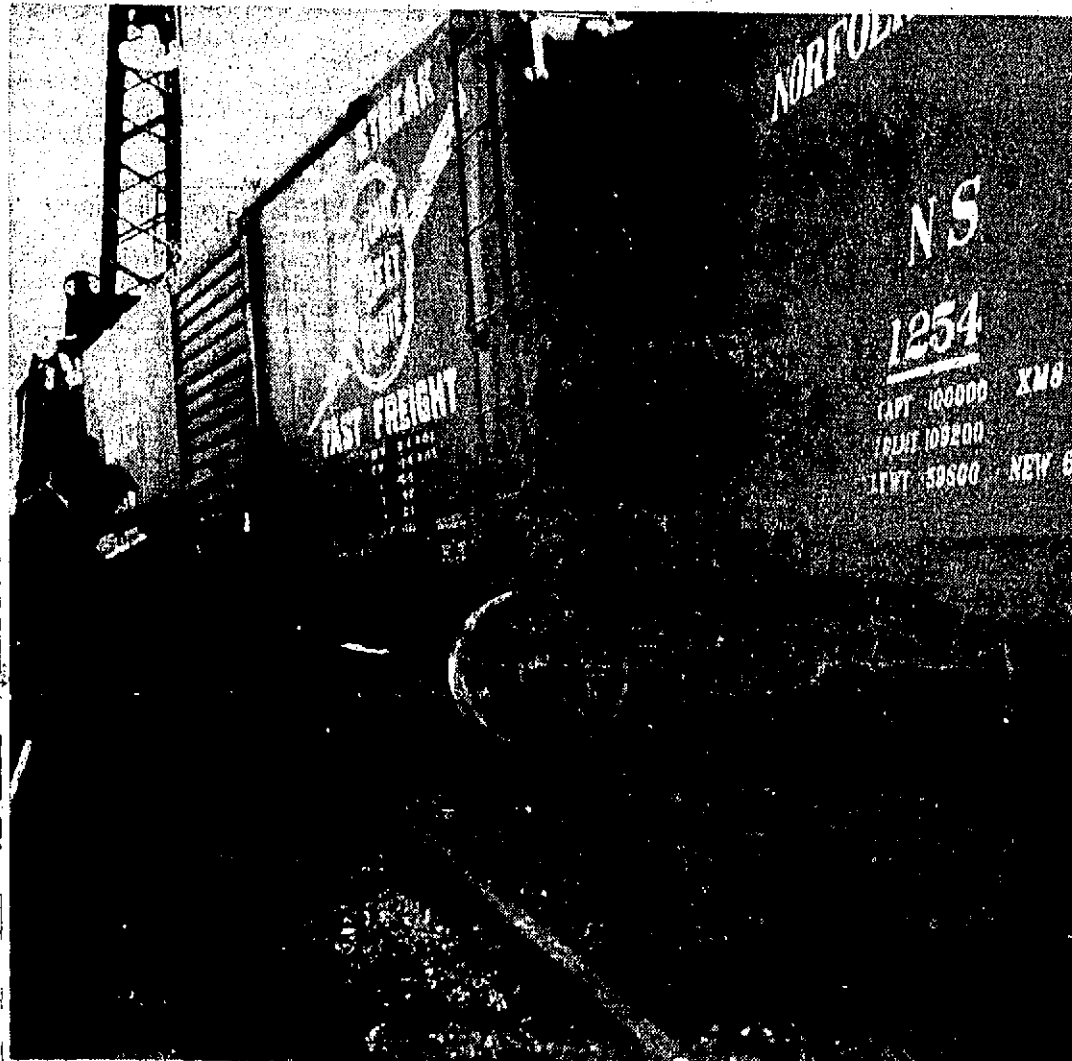

Parker stayed on the raft and kept warm by building a fire in a bucket. He was rescued Friday. Warren's body was found on the creek bank.

Mrs. Irene Rivera, 26, and her daughter, Cathy Diane, 4, of Newport, drowned Saturday when their car skidded on an icy bridge and overturned into Village Creek about three miles east of Newport. The car crashed through thick ice on the creek which crosses old state Highway 14.

Midwest Hit by New Wet Snow Blanket

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Heavy wet snow blanketed broad areas of the Midwest today, piling atop the big covering still on the ground from last week's storm.

The storm, which swept northward from eastern Kansas and Oklahoma dumped from one up to more than six inches of snow in a belt extending from northern Missouri across northwestern Illinois into southeastern Wisconsin and western lower Michigan.

Snow depths in the region ranged from 8 to 10 inches, with the covering in Muskegon, Mich., measuring 15 inches. Chicago, hit by an 11-inch snowfall a week ago, started digging out from the fresh fall which was expected to reach eight or nine inches.

Driving conditions were reported hazardous throughout the snow belt. At least three traffic deaths were attributed to slippery highways, one each in Kansas, Missouri and Iowa. Three persons died of heart attacks while shoveling snow in Illinois.

Air travel was curtailed in some cities, including Kansas City and Chicago.

South of the snow belt, heavy rains pounded areas from southern Illinois and Indiana southward through the lower Mississippi Valley.

Thunderstorms rumbled across Alabama and sections of Louisiana and Mississippi, causing some property damage. Gusts of 66 m.p.h. lashed Birmingham while gusty winds and heavy rains hit southeast Louisiana.

There was a warming trend in most of the Southeast in the wake of last week's unseasonable cold weather. Temperatures were above freezing for the first time in several nights in the Carolinas, Tennessee and the Gulf region. Readings ranged up to 20 in southern Florida Sunday.

AT 6:15 A. M. TODAY THE WHEELS CAME OFF OF A freight car in the Hope yards within a few feet of the Missouri Pacific station and two cars were off the track. A railway spokesman said that someone, somewhere pulled the wheels of one car and this resulted in burning the packing out of the wheels of one car when the northbound freight got to Hope. Fortunately other trains take sidetracks through the city and very little delay resulted. The cars were expected to be moved during this afternoon.

Small State Counties Get Out Vote

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP)

Fifty-six counties in Arkansas having 25,000 or less population have more than twice as effective a voting representative as Pulaski County, a University of Virginia study indicates.

The study, using 100 per cent as the strength of vote if all residents, both rural and urban, were equally represented, shows Arkansas' largest populated county 61 per cent effective, while the 56 smaller counties are 123 per cent effective.

In 18 other Arkansas counties ranging from 25,000 to 99,000 in population, the effective scale is 90 per cent. Pulaski County has a population of 243,000 with eight House seats.

Although Pulaski County is below the national average of 64 big city counties at 74 per cent, it is higher than many.

Fulton County, Ga. (Atlanta) was ranked lowest at 12 per cent. Other low figures were recorded at DuDe County, Fla. (Miami), 10 per cent; Harris County, Tex. (Houston), 23 per cent, and Dallas, Tex., 44 per cent.

Pulaski and Jefferson counties, which showed population increases between 1950 and 1960 have appealed to the Arkansas Supreme Court the state's 1961 reapportionment contending there should have been a representation increase corresponding with the rise in population.

The study, which covered all 50 states, was conducted by the university's Bureau of Public Administration, covering the 1910-1960 period.

Star School Ruling Is Affirmed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court affirmed today a Chancery Court ruling that Garland County School District No. 1 is not required to maintain an elementary school in the Star Community.

Child T. Evans and other patrons brought suit against the school board when it closed the schools after the 1960 term when only 12 students enrolled in six grades.

The Supreme Court also upheld Garland Chancery Court's ruling that the board should not be required to spend $10,000 it collected in 1952 to build a school in the western part of the district.

The high court said evidence showed the Star school was inefficient and it was better for its students to endure a 30-mile bus ride to a school at Jessetteville than to attend there.

It added that the $10,000 at issue was not enough to build an adequate school and testimony in the other phase of the case had showed there were not enough students to support such a school if it were built.

The Supreme Court said the law gives school boards broad powers over operation of schools and there was no testimony in the current case to indicate the board acted in anything but good faith.

U. S., Common Market Nations in Agreement

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—The United States and common market nations will initial a sweeping agreement to cut tariffs on many industrial products Tuesday, informed sources said today.

The informants confirmed reports that cuts of about 20 per cent on some industrial items are foreseen.

As to U.S. agricultural products, they will be considered in later negotiations between the United States and the European Economic Community, the formal name for the six-nation common market, these sources reported. They will involve wheat, corn and poultry.

The agreement will be initiated by Howard Peterson, special adviser to President Kennedy, and Jean Rey, member of the EEC in charge of foreign relations.

The agreement cannot become final until it is approved unanimously by the EEC council of ministers, informants said. U.S. sources said the agreement also has to go back to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade organizations in Geneva, under whose auspices the negotiations began.

A spokesman for the U.S. mission to the EEC confirmed that a meeting had been arranged between Peterson and Rey for Tuesday but said as far as they know, the meeting is not for the formal signature of any agreement.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and the European Common Market nations are reported to have wrapped up a sweeping tariff-cutting agreement on many industrial products.

The pact, it was understood, involves up to 20 per cent reductions of hundreds of tariffs—more by the six nation market than by the United States.

It also was reported that an arrangement had been made for protecting U. S. farm products in trade with the market.

The agriculture problem had been the main obstacle in the 15 Continued on Page Two Indonesia Boat Sunk by the Dutch

HOllandia, West New Guinea (AP)—An Indonesian motor torpedo boat has been sunk by Dutch warships in Dutch territorial waters off New Guinea, a navy spokesman said today.

The engagement took place when Dutch patrol vessels encountered a number of Indonesian motor torpedo boats, the navy spokesman said. He had no information on the fate of the other torpedo boats.

The Dutch news agency in The Hague said the engagement took place Sunday night.

Indonesia has threatened to seize West New Guinea by force if it cannot win the island by diplomacy and Dutch officials report infiltration by small bands of Indonesians already has begun.

A Dutch official at Biak reported some Indonesian infiltrators have been killed in skirmishes with Dutch patrols.

The navy spokesman said patrol craft encountered the torpedo boats off the south coast near Elna Bay. This is a region within easy range of some of the eastern Indonesian islands believed used as a base for infiltrators into West New Guinea.

It was not clear how many vessels were engaged in the encounter.

8 Victims Are Children Ages 3 to 12 Years

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP)—A family of 10, including eight children, was killed when a wind-swept fire gutted their colonial farm home in the pre-dawn today 25 miles north of here.

The victims were identified as Mr. and Mrs. Andy Paladino, in their 40s, and their children, Philip, 12, David, 11, Beverly, 10, David, 9, Carolyn, 8, Ralph, 6, Jan 5, and Terry, 3.

Sheriff Marlin Hawkins said the fire was discovered by Frank Ryski, a neighbor, who told officers the house was destroyed by the time he arrived.

All that remained was the smoldering foundation of the one-time showplace home.

Eight bodies were recovered and a search was being made in the debris for the other two bodies. Those recovered were burned beyond recognition, officers said.

Cause of the fire was not immediately determined.

Officials said the Paladinos had entertained guests Sunday night and the fire apparently started sometime between midnight and 5 a.m.

Paladino was designated as a "master farmer" by county agricultural officials.

The two-story frame home was built by Paladino's father, Tony Paladino, in an area known as Catholic Point.

Plaintiffs Gain Additional Time

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Plaintiffs in two Paragould election contest suits were given an additional 10 days today to perfect their appeals to the Arkansas Supreme Court.

The suits were brought by former Mayor Charles A. Wood against J. T. Brown and by former Alderman Robert H. Harris against George P. Textor.

The Supreme Court recently rejected as improperly prepared a portion of the appeals filed by Wood and Harris from a lower court order affirming the election of Brown as mayor and Textor as alderman in Paragould's municipal elections.

Today's order said any records filed by Wood and Harris within 10 days would be treated as part of the original filings.

AEA Says State Needs Classrooms

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Education Department estimates the state needed 2,696 new public school classrooms at the start of this school year.

A total of 871 classrooms are needed to alleviate crowded conditions and another 1,825 to replace inadequate rooms, a federal Office of Education report showed.

Arkansas added 954 classrooms during the 1960-61 school year. And 306 new classrooms are expected to be completed this year.

months of negotiations. That apparently was cleared Sunday when the Common Market hammered together a joint agriculture program.

When the deal goes through—and informants indicated it may be near the signing stage—the U.S. tariff reductions would be made under the authority already held by President Kennedy.

Such authority was granted by the 1958 enabling act of the reciprocal trade program. This is the program Kennedy wants greatly expanded to give him a free hand in negotiating massive tariff reductions with the Common Market.

State Department officials said that one result of the agreement would be that the Common Market would lower its tariffs 20 per cent.

U. S. reductions—lifted by the trade act—would be up to 20 per cent.

"The agreement was worked out in Brussels with special presidential adviser Howard Peterson representing the United States in final talks with officials of the Common Market—which is made

Italy, the Netherlands, Belgium

Rusk to Tell Group About UN Bonds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk goes to Capitol Hill today to brief members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on world trouble of U.N. bonds.

Rusk appears before a closed spots. One possible subject for discussion is proposed U.S. purchase session of the committee as Congress members continue to voice their opinions of President Kennedy's proposal for authority to purchase half of a $200-million
U.N. bond issue.

The 25-year, 2-per cent bonds would help pay the cost of U.N. operations in the Congo and the Middle East.

A Democrat, Sen. Harry F.
Byrd, of Virginia, has been vocal and persistent in his opposition to the idea. Sunday a Republican, Sen. John Sherman Cooper, of Kentucky, swung behind it.

"We've committed ourselves to it. We're in it and I'll vote for it," he said of the U.N. financing plan.

But, Cooper added on a television interview—CBS — "Washington Conversation"—the United States should inform all nations it will not continue such aid unless they pay up their U.N. assessments.

Elsewhere, Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., a member of the Senate committee, championed U.S. purchase of the bonds to help "elch (Soviet Premier) Khrushchev's defeat in the Congo."

"The one biggest defeat Khrushchev has suffered in the last 10 years has been in the Congo," Gore said. "Success in the Congo, which means success in Africa,
will represent our biggest victory
since World War II."

Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., denounced the bond issue proposal Sunday, asserting it would provide the Soviet Union "a long-time escape avenue" for refusing to pay its share of the Congo operation.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said he is "hopeful that we can get through what the administration requested, and that is a $100-million bond

Title to Voting Amendment

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The ballot title and popular name of a petition seeking a constitutional amendment to permit the use of voting machines was approved Saturday by Atty. Gen. Frank

"I had no idea the Power Company offered us so many helpful services"

"it's true . . . and there's no charge for them and no obligation to buy!"

One of the ways in which the New Year ahead can be more pleasant and profitable for you and your family lies in your use of the many customer-services of Arkansas Power & Light Company. Performed without cost by trained, experienced people, they are available to all our customers. Look over the suggestions listed below — they are all designed to make your electric service even more helpful to you. And all you need do is call or write your nearest Arkansas Power & Light Company office, indicating the assistance you would like.

Modern Kitchen Planning-

The Home Service Advisors of Arkansas Power & Light Company will gladly help you plan that new Electric Kitchen you've been wanting. They will show you how to make best use of your present kitchen space, or how to plan the Kitchen in a brand new home. So whether you are intending to build a new home or simply remodel an older one, call your friends at the Power Company and ask for help from a Home Service Advisor.

RECOMMENDATIONS IMPLY NO OBLIGATION

Certified Wiring Planning-

Every modern home needs Full Housepower, with Certified Adequate Wiring, to enable you to get the very best service from all your electric appliances. Our customers may bring house plans to your office, where a member of the Arkansas Adequate Wiring Bureau will design the wiring plans to meet Bureau requirements. Three inspections will be made while the home is being built, and if the wiring meets the specifications, the home owner will receive an Adequate Wiring Certificate. Remember — there's no charge.

Home Lighting Consultation-

Will 1962 be the year in which you build that new home . . .
or the time when you plan to remodel your present home for more modern living? In either case, Home Lighting Consultants and sales personnel, graduates of the Academy of Lighting Arts, can assist you in planning lighting that adds to the decorative beauty of your home and protects the eyes of all occupants. For information on any phase of home lighting, ask for AP&L's Home Lighting Service.

Electric Heating Surveys-

Electric heating has proved its worth — hundreds of Arkansas homes use it and like it. To discover what it will do for you and how much it will cost, simply submit your house plans to your local AP&L office. A heating specialist will study the plans and submit a cost study on what it will cost to heat (and cool) your home. Certainly, if you are building or remodeling, you will want to look at the benefits and comparative cost of electric heating.

Gizenga to Return to Leopoldville

By PETER GROSE

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The Congo Parliament by an overwhelming majority censured Antoine Gizenga today for his defiance of the central Congo government. The pro-Communist deputy premier was a virtual prisoner of U.N. and Congolese forces encircling his residence in Stanleyville.

The government announced Gizenga had agreed to end his self-imposed exile and return to Leopoldville by this Saturday after his personal bodyguard surrendered Sunday to Congolese troops. His capitulation came too late to avert the parliamentary wrath.

After a brief but angry debate, the vote in the Chamber of Deputies was 67 for the censure motion, a single vote against it, and one abstention.

The parliamentary action left the way open for Premier Cyrille Adoula to oust Gizenga from the deputy premiership he accepted last August but never actually filled.

One deputy said Gizenga's gendarmes who battled Congolese troops in Stanleyville over the weekend were in every way comparable to the foreign mercenaries fighting for President Moise Tshombe in Katanga Province.

Nearly 300 of Gizenga's gendarmes — his military army in Stanleyville — have been disarmed and taken prisoner by central government troops a U.N. spokesman reported.

One platoon of about 25 remains to be neutralized, but they were being rounded up in the bush around Stanleyville, he added. Up to the end of fighting yesterday 14 Congolese troops were reported killed.

Final Rites for Ernie Kovacs

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Ernie Kovacs, the mustachioed comedian who once said every moment of life should be enjoyed, lived and treasured, will be buried today with simple Presbyterian rites.

Ernie often said he didn't want to leave with the usual fanfare of Hollywood funerals, so his widow, singer Edie Adams, arranged the brief church rites and private burial at Forest Lawn's Hollywood Hills Cemetery. There will be no eulogy.

The 42-year-old comedian was killed early Saturday when his compact station wagon skidded into a telephone pole. Jack Lemmon, Frank Sinatra,

Their Children Would Clip Parents' Wings

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: Ever since my husband retired four years ago, we dreamed of going back to our farm in Southern Illinois, but it remains only a dream.

Our three children hit the ceiling at the very idea. They contend we are too old. My husband is 68. I am 60. We ought to be within calling distance of them if one of us falls sick, they say, and why give up the comfort of a city apartment for the discomforts of rural life?

Being city bred, they don't appreciate the thrill of waking on a spring morning to find the fruit trees in full bloom; eating the first corn from our own garden; gathering nuts in the glory of an autumn landscape, or walking on clean, white snow in the winter.

We moved to the city because of the educational advantages for them but now that they are grown and married, we feel we should be allowed to do as we please.

I long for a garden of old-fashioned flowers. My husband wants to raise a few vegetables, breed some cattle, and hunt and fish. Since we have a tenant farmer, there would be no heavy work for us to do. What would be your answer to our problem? —60 Years Young

Dear Sixty: Your children's thinking is negative. Over-protectiveness is a form of fear and that is bad. I see no valid objection to your returning to the land you both love, especially if there is a tenant to lend a helping hand. The greatest thing in life is to do what you want, with in reason. If you want to go, go. In the last analysis, the decision is up to you and not your children. Assert yourself.

Dear Helen: I am an in-between sister, with a younger brother and sister, two older sisters, one married, and an older brother. I long to be a real sister to them, but they all pick on me.

Dean Martin, Billy Wilder, Dick Quince and Joe Mikalos will be active pallbearers.

In 1846 a scythe manufacturer, Joseph Jenkes received this country's first machine patent, for equipment used in his water-driven mill.

especially my 20-year-old sister. I listen to her worries but if I start telling mine, she shuts me up with a terse, "That's nothing. I have had worse problems."

Tonight, not caring for the TV program the family was watching, I walked into the kitchen and my sister happened to be cleaning her pocketbook. "For heaven's sake," she cried, "must you be forever following me around like a little dog? Drop dead!"

I can't help living. Mother tells her and the others off for speaking to me like this but it hurts nonetheless. Am I over-sensitive or —Only Human

Dear Only Human: Don't let sentimentalism cloud the facts. Brothers and sisters, no matter how devoted, are rivals at heart, especially when they are young. Subconsciously, each strives for the approval of parents, friends, relatives, and the world in general. Some gain it by figuratively turning cartwheels; others build themselves up by belittling the one who has the inside track.

Your mother champions you; as a consequence, your brothers and sisters will naturally pick on you. See these childish rivalries for what they are. Once you have learned to take their needling with a smile, you will have attained the maturity they lack.

Dear Helen: Do the questions we ask and the answers you give always get published in the daily paper? If so, why the stamped, self-addressed envelope? Doesn't this indicate privacy? A Reader

Dear Reader: The questions and answers published in this column are chosen on the basis of their universal interest and in the hope that they may help others confronted with similar problems. I must write my column in advance. The stamped, self-addressed envelope is simply to expedite the answer. If the reader requests, neither question nor answer will be printed.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine, care of this newspaper. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Ten Rules Will Help Oldsters Stay Young."

UN Debate Strains U. S. and Portugal

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Renewed U.N. debate on Angola today puts a new strain on ties between the United States and its Atlantic ally Portugal.

The debate was the first major business at the General Assembly resumes its 16th annual session after a Christmas recess.

Asian and European diplomats said U.S. delegates had told them it hoped the 104-nation assembly would adopt a moderate, meaningful resolution that would push the Portuguese toward self-determination for Angola.

But Portugal contended that the assembly had no right to even discuss its big West African territory. It maintained that all Portuguese overseas territories are provinces, not colonies, and their control is a domestic matter outside the assembly's jurisdiction.

There was speculation that the Portuguese delegation would boycott the Angola debate as it did on a similar occasion last April. Sources in Lisbon have predicted that Portugal would quit the United Nations if the assembly censured rule over Angola.

Diplomatic sources said the United States probably would not introduce a resolution itself but would try to see that any introduced from Africa, Asia or Latin America would contribute toward (1) self-determination for Angola (2) a satisfactory settlement of the 11-month-old rebellion there. Communist countries were reported seeking to get African delegations to put in a resolution that would (1) call on all countries to refrain from supplying Portugal with arms to use against the rebels and (2) ask the assembly's 17-nation special committee on independence for colonies to give its first attention to Angola. Whatever the United States or the Soviet bloc might want, the 50-nation Asian-African group was expected to produce its own resolution on Angola and push it through the assembly with little or no change.

The second part of the assembly session is expected to last four to six weeks. Angola is the only question before the full assembly. The assembly's trusteeship committee still has to set a date for ending Belgian trusteeship over the little African countries of Ruanda and Urundi. Seven officials of those countries and Belgian Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak were on hand for the discussion.

The trusteeship committee also has to deal with resolutions seeking negotiations between Britain and British Guiana on an independence date for the latter, and an inquiry whether Southern Rhodesia enjoys self-determination.

The British government announced early today it is willing to call a constitutional conference in May to discuss independence for British Guiana, a colony on the north coast of South America. Cheddi Jagan, the colony's left-wing prime minister, has been insisting on independence by May 1.

Temperatures Take a Dive in Britain

LONDON (AP) - Temperatures took a steep dive all over Britain today, but winter had nothing to do with it. Britain began shaking off a tradition and switched from the Fahrenheit to the centigrade scale of thermometer marking. The change to the continental way of measuring hot and cold was the first phase of an official program to convert Britons to the decimal system of measuring. The switch was gradual. Television and radio newscasters gave both centigrade and Fahrenheit figures. Eventually Fahrenheit will be quietly dropped. Some London newspapers printed centigrade temperatures in their weather reports with Fahrenheit demoted to brackets alongside. A government move is also under way to discard pounds, shillings and pence for easier-to-record decimal currency. A committee has been appointed to work out how the change can best be made.

Blue Mountain Claims 3rd Place

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., (AP) - Blue Mountain claimed its third-place title in a four-year tournament when four California men died in the crash of their single-engine plane. The Californians went down Sunday in a spinning beechnut bonanza in foggy, rainy weather. State trooper Glen Minton, who is a pilot, theorized that the plane got into trouble in foul weather and lost a wing in a high-speed spin. Minton said Louis Risner of Englewood, Calif., apparently was the pilot. Other victims were Henry Clay Risner, Louis' brother; Russ Weininger, a business associate of Louis Risner; and Charles Cornell, all of the Los Angeles area. In 1916 Salim the Grim conquered Syria for the Ottoman Turks, who ruled until 1918 when British and Arabs occupied the country. Hope Captures Double Win Over Camden

By VINCE FOSTER

Hope took two district games from Camden Saturday night as they whipped the Panthers 57-41 and the Bobkittens remained undefeated by winning a defensive battle with the Cubs 28-16. The Bobcats took a 12-0 first quarter lead with Hatfield taking 7, and then stretched it to 29-17 at the half. Camden outscored them 6-5 in the third quarter, but behind Murphy who sacked 12, the Cats went on to win 57-41, outscoring the visitors 23-18 in the final quarter. This gives the Cats a 2-0 record in conference play and a 3-3 seasonal record. David Porterfield leads the Cats in scoring with 124, followed by Powell with 118 and Hatfield with 104. Hatfield leads in conference play with 31 for two games, and Powell and Murphy follow with 25 each. In Saturday's game, Hatfield was high with 18, followed by Murphy with 14, Powell with 10, Russell G. Porterfield 5, McLarty 3, and Hooten taking one. Smith led Camden with 18. In the junior game, the score stood 4-4 in the first period, but the Kittens slipped out front 10-6 at the half. They stretched this to 16-12 in the third, and with Jordan who took 8, the Kittens outscored Camden 12-4 in the final period, winning 28-16. Jordan was high with 12, followed by Burnett with 9, Ingram 5, and Guerin 2. The Kittens are also 2-0 in district AAA, and they stand 6-0 for the season. Burnett leads in scoring with 69, followed by Jordan with 56 and McNatt with 28. Disappointing crowds have been on hand for the two district games and more support is urged. Friday the Cats and Kittens travel to Prescott for a pair of non-conference games. The Cats beat the Curly Wolves 41-37 in a previous engagement and this game promises to be an even more exciting one on Prescott's home court. Saturday the Cats and the Kittens meet Magnolia in Jones Field House for an important district game. The Bobcats previously beat Magnolia in the semi-finals of the Holiday Tournament. Please be on hand for these important contests.

West Takes Pro Bowl in Wild Contest

LOS ANGELES (AP) - The West emerged from the 1962 Pro Bowl, one of the wildest ever, with a 31-30 victory—but it took a combination of triumph and tragedy to overturn the underdog East. The National Football League's postseason thriller was witnessed Sunday by 57,409 coliseum fans and a national television audience of millions. There was a 12-yard touchdown pass by Johnny Unitas to Jon Arnett in the last two seconds, a last-minute fumble by the East's Jim Brown that paved the way for the final West score, and a blocked conversion attempt in the third period. After it was over, Brown—named the most valuable player—said he felt more like a goat. With five minutes left, the brilliant Cleveland fullback shook off four tacklers and bulldozed 70 yards to a touchdown, giving the East a 30-24 edge. Then on a routine running play with slightly more than a minute left, Brown fumbled. Chicago's Bill George, who pried the ball loose from Brown, recovered it. With a minute left and the ball on the East's 41, Unitas went to work. The Baltimore star passed for 15 yards to rookie Mike Ditka of Chicago and 14 yards to Colt teammate Lenny Moore. With 15 seconds left, a Unitas pass to Moore fell incomplete. As the seconds ticked away, Unitas faded, barely eluding the grasp of New York's Andy Robustelli. Rolling to his left, the quarterback spotted elusive Los Angeles halfback Jon Arnett alone umped in 32 more points. Cincinnati's downfall came last Wednesday night in a 70-68 overtime loss to Bradley, marking the fifth time in five years the Bearcats have been ambushed at Peoria. Cincinnati has been idle since, but has two potential troublemakers to meet this week—dayton (10-3) Tuesday night and eighth-ranked Duquesne (11-1) at Pittsburgh Thursday night. Third-ranked Kentucky (12-1), in its accustomed spot at the head of the Southeastern Conference standings, will be in action tonight at Tennessee before a two-week layoff. The Wildcats polished off Louisiana State 44-63 Friday night and have won 11 in a row since a 2-point setback by Southern Cal six weeks ago. Fifth-ranked Kansas State, Bowling Green, No. 9, and Duke, ranked 10th, all collected two victories each last week in strengthening their conference title hopes.

Fayetteville Continues as Top Team

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fayetteville rolled to its 12th straight victory Saturday night 58-30 and today was again ranked first in The Associated Press' Arkansas schoolboy basketball poll. The Bulldogs got eight of the nine first-place votes from the board of sports writers. Little Rock Central again ranked second and Little Rock Hall held third. Jonesboro moved up a notch to fourth place and Greene County Tech leaped from obscurity into fifth place after an impressive 64-34 victory over Big Nine Conference Blytheville. Pine Bluff fell two notches to sixth after an overtime loss to El Dorado Saturday night. Blytheville and White Hall tied for seventh place. White Hall ran its season record to 19-0 with a 68-53 victory over Dollarway Saturday night. White Hall and Fayetteville are the state's only unbeaten schoolboy teams. Harrison ranks ninth and Fort Smith's grizzlies moved up to 10th place. This week Little Rock Central and Little Rock Hall will settle second place in a duel Friday night. Fayetteville gets its toughest test of the season in a game with Jonesboro in Fayetteville. Here are the results of the second weekly poll, with first place votes in parentheses and total points based on 10 for a first place vote, 9 for second, etc., at right. 1. Fayetteville (8) 28 2. Little Rock Central (1) 73 3. Little Rock Hall 58 4. Jonesboro 57 5. Greene County Tech 50 6. Pine Bluff 40 7. Blytheville (tie) 28 8. White Hall (tie) 28 9. Harrison 19 10. Fort Smith 11 Others, in order: Valley Springs and North Little Rock tie, El Dorado, Texarkana and Forrest City tie, Van Buren and Leachville and Manila and Sparkman tie, Mena and Bentonville tie.

W. Virginia Sure Thing in Basketball

By JIM HACKLEMAN Associated Press Sports Writer

If anything is sure in Southern Conference basketball, it's West Virginia. Of course a basketball sometimes can take funny bounces, and it did for West Virginia last March. Overwhelming favorites to win the conference title for the seventh straight time, the Mountaineers were toppled by William and Mary in the league tournament semifinals and the crown eventually went to George Washington. That took place at the Richmond Arena, which West Virginia will visit tonight for the first time since that unhappy experience last year. The high-powered Mountaineers, fresh from a 120-88 romp over George Washington Saturday night and with a glistening 8-0 conference record, have their second meeting of the season with Richmond's Spiders. They handied Richmond a month ago without strain, 97-61. The Mountaineers were among the nation's top ten about that time, but were dumped out after a string of three successive losses. Since then they've surged back by winning five straight, counting Villanova among their victims, and are prime candidates for a re-entry into the rankings with 11-3 marks. There are likely to be some shaking up in those ratings, too, after some surprises last week. Fourth-ranked Southern California (12-3) was upset, sixth-ranked Villanova (13-2) got raked up, seventh-ranked Mississippi State's (10-1) unbeaten string came to an abrupt end, and second-ranked Cincinnati (11-2) again found the jinx at Bradley too much. Vanderbilt crushed Mississippi State 100-86, starting the Bulldogs off on a sad note on their three-game road trip. Next comes Georgia Tech tonight and Mississippi Saturday night. That loss by Mississippi State left the smooth and awesome Buckeyes of Ohio State as the country's only undefeated team. The top-ranked Bucks ran over Michigan 89-64 Saturday for their 12th straight, and will have a week's rest before resuming their Big Ten campaign at Minnesota. Villanova was upended, but big by Xavier on the Ohioans' court, 87-66. Southern California could do no more than split in its Big Five series at Washington, losing 85-67 Friday night as Bill Hanson scored 37 points and rebounding 78-84 Saturday night despite another fine game by Hanson, who

When to Fish or Hunt Solunar Tables

By John Alden Knight

The schedule of Solunar period as printed below, has been taken from John Alden Knight's Solunar Tables. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times, if you wish to find the best sport that each day has to offer. The major periods are shown in bold face type. These begin at the time shown and last for an hour and a half or two hours thereafter. The minor periods, shown in regular type, are of somewhat shorter duration.

In the end zone and tossed him a perfect strike. Jim Martin of Detroit kicked the winning conversion his fourth of the day. Martin also booted a 27-yard field goal in the second period. Another crucial play occurred in the third quarter when Green Bay's Henry Jordan and Detroit's Dick (Night Train) Lane broke through to bat down an Eastern conversion attempt. Jordan was named most valuable lineman. The blocked point eventually spelled defeat for the East, the loser in the last three Pro Bowl games. The West has an 8-4 edge in the series. Unitas, always unruffled, said of the winning TD loss: "Mike Ditka was the primary target, but he was held up at the line. I was lucky to get out of a trap." Unitas, most valuable player in the '60s and '61 Pro Bowls, completed 13 of 23 passes for 162 yards and two touchdowns. Next to Brown, the East's unhappiest player was aging quarterback Y. A. Tittle, who tossed two TD passes and completed 15 of 26 pass attempts. The East outgained the West in first downs, 19-17; rushing 171-73, and passing yardage, 218-172.

Dick Weber Wins All-Star Bowling Title

Miami Beach (AP) - Dick Weber, slender St. Louis pro who has won more than 100 bowling trophies in his career, finally grasped the biggest of all Saturday night when he won the $15,000 All-Star championship. Weber beat Roy Lown of El Paso, 619 to 600 in the three game match. Lown, a dark horse from an original field of 288 men, won $8,000 for second place. Shirley Garris of Chicago overcame a 47-pin deficit in the last game of her championship match with Joy Abel, Chicago, and won the $5,000 women's title. She won the final three game match 647 to 638. Dick Hoover of St. Louis took third place when he defeated Ed Lubanski of Detroit 634-551. Hoover got $5,000 and Lubanski $4,000. Carmen Salvino of Dallas won $3,000 when he defeated four-time champion Don Carter of St. Louis for 5th place 626-602.

NCAA Is at Odds With AAU Group

CHICAGO (AP) - The National Collegiate Athletic Association has fired another broadside, a plan for a new U.S. track and field federation, in its three-way skirmish with the Amateur Athletic Union. A rough outline of the federation when the AAU selects its executive committee of the National Collegiate Track Coaches Association. No structure was announced, but the committee said it approved a possible outdoor federation championship for the summer to oppose the AAU outdoor championships. The NCAA also is feuding with the AAU in two other sports. In addition to track and field, the NCAA has authorized creation of a new federation in gymnastics. One already has been drawn up in basketball. NCTCA president Chick Werner of Penn State said the new track federation will consider staging a championship meet on the same day as the AAU meet if the AAU refuses to accept representation in the federation. Werner said a conflicting meet could be arranged for the same time as drafted Sunday by the AAU to represent the United States in the dual meet with Russia at Stanford University in July. The NCAA council was authorized to take the dispute to the federal government, if necessary. Handling of the matter has been turned over to the Committee on AAU-Olympic Relations, headed by Wilbur Johns, UCLA athletic director. The two athletic organizations have tentatively scheduled a meeting in Kansas City Feb. 4 to confer with Louis Wilke, vice president of the International Federation of the International Basketball Federation, as mediator in the battle over basketball. The NCAA made these additional significant moves during last week's convention in Chicago: Banned outside organized basketball competition, aimed at eradicating gambling and bribery. The move outlawed summer leagues and related basketball activity for collegians. Toughened regulations concerning transfers from junior colleges to four-year schools. Refused a Notre Dame proposal that the rules committee be authorized to reverse the outcome

Fullmer Sets Sights on Old Archie

NEW YORK (AP) - Gene Fullmer today set his sights squarely on old Archie Moore's New York-Massachusetts-European version of the world light heavyweight championship—with one important reservation. "I would like to meet Archie for the title any time," said Fullmer, himself the world - National Boxing Association version - middleweight champion. "But I won't fight him if he wants all the money. I have heard of some of his demands before he has signed contracts. My days as an amateur are over. I want part of the purse." Fullmer, who comes from West Jordan, Utah, was honored Sunday night as "Fighter of the Year" by the New York Boxing Writers Association at the organization's 36th annual dinner. "I think Archie is about ready to be taken," said Fullmer, "and I think I am the man to take him." His manager, Marv Jensen, nodded agreement. "I really would like to get the middleweight thing straightened out before I go after the light heavies," said Fullmer. "I'd fight Terry Downes (New York-Massachusetts champion) or Paul Pender (who is scheduled to fight Downes) anytime. "But," he shrugged, "it looks like neither one of them want to fight me and I'm getting tired of waiting." In the next decade, five industrial cities will rise in the Negev, the sandswept southern wedge of Israel. Charlotte Amalie, St.

The Road to the Snail

by WILLIAM P. MCGIVERN
 Chapter XIX

These were the queerest fish of all, these Britishers. The y had charmed and outraged friend and enemy alike for generations. And now they were all gone, dead as the dodo. Teddy Boys and shop stewards had stepped into the boots of Drake and Raleigh and teenage wing commanders.

That was the general view at any rate. But here, smiling at me from dreary prison cell seemed to be a survivor of that preposterous, non-functional breed.

Maybe that was what was sad. That he probably was—might well be—the very last.

I went back upstairs to Don Julio's office and told them I'd had no luck with Dennis.

"Very well," Don Julio said, shrugging. "He leaves us no choice. I have the papers prepared. We will escort him to Gibraltar in the morning."

"You'll throw him out of Spain?"

"Of course. There's nothing else to do."

"Now wait a minute please!"

I knew what a dreadful blow this would be to Dennis. "Can't you find some alternative?"

"I don't see how," Don Julio said. "We've tried to be reasonable. It's your friend who is behaving."

He inclined his head to Francesca. "—like an ass, if you'll forgive me."

I turned to the Marquesa.

"Look, Francesca, I know you've been put upon, irritated, and inconvenienced by this ridiculous business. But couldn't you slack your conditions just a bit? I know Dennis should apologize for all the trouble he's caused. But could you possibly skip that?"

She shrugged impatiently. "Of course. I don't want his apology. I don't want to see the silly man again."

"Well, there's just one other thing," I said. "Unless you want Dennis thrown out of Spain like a criminal, make this last, generous concession: let him work alone on the road."

"It's impossible."

"But listen; he'll accomplish nothing, you know that. But it will be a sop to his pride."

There was a strange look about her eyes then, and I had the feeling there was something she wanted to say; but she apparently changed her mind, for her expression altered and she turned away with an indifferent shrug. "Bring him the tidings of glorious victory," she said drily.

But to my dismay, Dennis refused to hear any talk of compromise. "They're on the run, I told you that," he said triumphantly. "I will be released unconditionally. And I will finish that road before I leave Spain. Take that word to them, if you will."

Now I did feel he'd gone mad. "Dennis, they're being very fair. Francesca has bent over backward to get you out of a bad spot. Instead of fuming and spouting, you should be grateful to her."

"Grateful to her! She put me here, remember."

"All right, have it your way. Now! Would you like me to go up to the Snail and pack your things?"

"Whatever for?"

"You've turned down their last offer. So it's all over. They're kicking you out of the country in the morning. The papers are ready. The Gibraltar Civil will escort you to Gibraltar. Your credentials will be invalidated. You've had it, Dennis."

The words seemed to strike him full

Hall of Fame to Take in 'Schoolboy'

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Former Major league pitcher Lynwood Thomas (Schoolboy) Rowe, considered by many sports enthusiasts to be the greatest all-around athlete in the history of Arkansas high school athletics, will enter the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame at a banquet here Thursday night.

Rowe, who died last year, began his monumental career by starring in football, basketball, track, baseball and golf at El Dorado High School from 1927 to 1931.

There are several versions of how he picked up his nickname Schoolboy, or Schoolie. Basically, they center around his pitching ability as a youngster in El Dorado, where he faced and beat men much older and more experienced than he.

Bill Walton, his high school coach, said Rowe was "the best all-around athlete in the United States in the last 100 years. That's a lot of time and a lot of territory, but if anybody comes up with a better one, they've really got something, and I'm thinking about Jim Thorpe and all the others."

Schoolboy, who stood 6-4 and weighed 210, signed with the Detroit Tigers for a modest bonus and made his debut with Beaumont Texas League in 1932. He had a 19-7 record there. The next year he went to the majors, and opened his career with a 3-0 victory over the White Sox. He was used only in spots, and had a 7-4 record that year. In 1934, he led Detroit to its first pennant in 25 years with a 24-8 mark and a winning streak of 16 straight games, tying an American League record held by Walter Johnson, Smokey Joe Wood and Bob Grove.

In 1935, Rowe's 19 victories lifted Detroit to its second pennant. He lost two series starts, but won one game in relief.

The zip was gone from his arm for several years, but he returned to the Tigers in 1940 and won 16 games while losing three as Detroit won the pennant again. He lost twice in the World Series.

His arm failed him again, and he was sold to the Phillies in 1943 where he had a 14-8 mark. Rowe spent two years in the Navy, and came back to the Phillies with a 14-10 record. He finished his career in 1949 with a 3-7 mark, and an overall record of 158 wins, 101 losses in the major leagues.

Later Rowe served as a playing manager, a Tiger scout and a coach.

Russians Release 2 U. S. Students

BERLIN (AP)—Two American students, jailed for trying to smuggle a girl out of East Berlin, were released by the Communists today.

The students, Victor Searles Pankey and Gilbert Page Ferrey, both 20 and both from Tustin, Calif., were sentenced to two years in prison.

The Supreme Court said there was no evidence of sufficient change in the facts to justify a change in the original custody decree.

A Union Probate Court decision that one Leon Carr was not entitled to receive any cash from the estates of his parents, R. A. and Mrs. Sarah Ellen Carr, because he owed the estate more than the amount of his bequest, was upheld unanimously.

Catholics to Be Firm on Paganism

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The Roman Catholic Church's ecumenical council will take a firm stand against rising currents of paganism, a communique announced today.

The communique was issued by the council's central preparatory commission at its third session.

The commission did not mention communism by name. But Vatican sources said that the communique indicated that atheistic communism would be included in the council's condemnation of paganism.

Officially proclaimed by Pope John XXIII on Christmas Day, the council will be convened late this year. The exact date has not been set. The council will bring to Rome about 3,000 cardinals, patriarchs, archbishops, bishops, priests and specialists in church matters.

The council will be dedicated to affairs of the Roman Catholic Church, but Pope John has frequently expressed the hope that it also will serve as a step toward world Christian unity.

At the conclusion of a secret session, the commission issued its communique saying the forthcoming council will condemn rising currents of paganism, including those which "by abusing psychoanalysis attempt to justify what is directly in contrast with the moral order."

The commission session, said the communique, recalled the words of the late Pope Pius XII on moral disorientation: "The greatest sin of our times is that of no longer believing in sin."

This, said the communique, results in error concerning the moral order dependent upon God and even in denial of the existence of God.

Asks World Group to Explore Space

BILOXI, Miss. (AP)—Southern leaders have recommended establishment of an international space agency to explore and exploit the resources of space so they may "effectively accrue to the benefits of all mankind."

The recommendation was in a report adopted Sunday at the conclusion of the four-day Southern Assembly here.

Wider sharing of information and participation in space projects would promote better international relations, the report said.

The assembly deplored what it called great differences between the salaries of top scientists and administrators within the government as opposed to the salaries received for similar work in private industry.

The report was compiled after deliberations by 60 southern representatives of government, education, industry and business. States represented were Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North and South Carolina, Tennessee and Texas.

When they returned through the Friedrichstrasse checkpoint they were accompanied by the two students. Reporters at the checkpoint saw the two young men.

Hugh Space Balloon Is Failure

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A huge space balloon broke apart hundreds of miles above the Atlantic today as it was inflating to the size of a 13-story building.

The breakup of the big balloon—dubbed "Big Shot"—showed several pieces of aluminum coated plastic into the ocean about 600 miles southeast of the Cape. The pieces, illuminated brilliantly by the rays of the rising sun, provided a spectacular show for observers.

The 500-pound bundle of plastic sheeting was folded neatly in a canister in the nose of a Thor rocket which blasted off at 6:00 a.m. in an experiment aimed at testing techniques for launching an advanced Echo communications satellite.

A few minutes after the launch, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced that the balloon had separated from the Thor and had started to inflate. But a short while later the space agency said that the balloon had split.

The reason for the failure was not immediately known. Technicians, planned to study television film relayed from a camera in the Thor booster. The film recorded the 25-minute flight.

An attempt also was under way to recover a 16-mm movie camera which ejected from the Thor and parachuted into the sea. The package carrying the movie camera was sighted floating in the ocean about 200 miles northeast of San Salvador about an hour after the launching. This film would provide a clearer picture of what happened to the big sphere.

Newsman at the Cape saw the beginning of the inflation process as the sun reflected off the gleaming surface. The balloon at first appeared as a solitary star drifting slowly upward in the dark, clear sky.

Suddenly, several other bright objects appeared to surround it. Observers thought initially that these might be parts of the rocket and the canister which carried the folded balloon.

The fragments climbed upward for approximately the intended maximum altitude of 950 miles before starting a quick descent, leaving wavy vapor trails in their wake.

"Big Shot" was to have inflated to a diameter of 135 feet, which would have made it the largest, but not the heaviest—space vehicle ever sent aloft.

NASA has a backup Thor and balloon and expects to repeat the shot as soon as today's trouble is pinpointed.

If the second shot is successful, a similar sphere will be rocketed into orbit later this year as Echo II.

Shackleford Files for Re-election

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—State Sen. Marshall Shackleford of El Dorado filed today as a candidate for renomination in the 13th District.

Shackleford, 37, is seeking a third term. He served in the House in 1951.

His corrupt practices pledge arrived by mail in the Secretary of State's office today.

The 13th District includes only one county, Union.

Between 80 and 90 per cent of the crude petroleum produced in Arkansas is refined in the state.

Construction in State to Be Up

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Construction News magazine predicts a 35 per cent increase in Arkansas construction this year over 1961.

A survey taken by the magazine shows an estimated $666,354,409 in building for Arkansas for 1962, compared to $496,534,371 last year.

The magazine, which is published for the construction industry, cited government agencies and other organizations as the authority for its predictions.
